dream of living on the Port Stephens waterfront was realised after completing a home on Wanda Beach. When Mitchell Street came on the market, Sean and Liz worked extremely hard to make their dream a reality.

Hunter Art on Show in Big Apple - Page 34

The beautiful scenery of the Brokenback Range in the Hunter Valley is a vast contrast to the vision of high-rise steel and concrete buildings which surround the ever-bustling streets of New York City, USA.

It's this stark contrast which prompted one of New York City's leading art galleries, famous for showcasing a spectacular array of talented artists' works from around the world, to produce an exhibition entitled "Out from Down Under & Beyond": Fine Art from Australia and New Zealand.

Tradition Continues at "Cawarra" - Page 39

Nestled on the upper reaches of the Paterson River, just outside the rural village of Gresford, proudly stands one of the Hunter's premier homesteads, "Cawarra". The name fits the scenic location with "Cawarra" being aboriginal
